Dear Friends:

It is a great pleasure to welcome all those attending the Eleventh Annual Theatre Event, benefiting St. Francis Food Pantries and Shelters.

This evening you come together to pay tribute to two extraordinary honorees; John Babieracki and Michael Davidson. On behalf of the residents of New York City, I applaud you for your admirable leadership and astonishing efforts to make a difference in the community.

In addition, I recognize all those associated with St. Francis Food Pantries and Shelters for honoring the generosity of these outstanding New Yorkers, and for hosting this special event to benefit their food pantries. Your tremendous efforts to assist our City's most vulnerable residents and prevent New Yorkers from going hungry are exemplary. It is always gratifying to unite with people and organizations sharing my commitment to strengthening our City and creating a better place for all eight million residents.

Please accept my best wishes for an enjoyable event and for continued success in your endeavors.

Sincerely,
